General Rules

1. Betfred Sports (Washington) LLC “Betfred Sports” and Silver Reef Casino Resort (hereinafter referred to as the “Sports Betting Operation”) customers are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the Sports Betting Operation House Rules (“House Rules”) prior to placing a wager. By placing a wager, the customer acknowledges reading and understanding the House Rules.
2. The Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to amend the House Rules at any time subject to the approval of the Tribal Gaming Agency. Any revisions will be effective immediately, and bets accepted post changes being applied shall be governed by the amended House Rules so long as the amended House Rules have been made publicly available.
3. Sports wagers may be funded in person with cash at the Sportsbook at the casino and in person with cash at the sports betting kiosks located at the casino.
4. The Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to refuse wagers or suspend any betting markets at anytime without notice.
5. For all events the maximum payout limit applies on a daily basis. If a bet is placed where the payout exceeds the maximum limit on any event the maximum payout limit still applies. The maximum payout is the total actual return of the bets excluding the customer’s original bet.
6. The Sports Betting Operation determines and controls the maximum and minimum wagers across all markets and events and may impose limits on those wagers at its’ sole discretion.
7. All wagers are accepted on the basis that they are on behalf of the individual placing the bet and not for any other person or entity.
8. For the acceptance of wagers other than at posted terms, there must be a documented approval from Betfred Sports.
9. Prohibited persons, as defined below, may not place wagers or collect winnings.
10. In the event of a move in odds or proposition changes, the cashier at the sportsbook will see the change while accepting the customer’s wager and will notify the customer of the change prior to executing the wager. If there is a change that occurs while a customer is placing a bet online, a pop-up message appears notifying the customer of the change and requiring them to accept it prior to placing their bet. If there is both a line and odds change, the customer will be prompted to accept both.
11. Customers shall validate that all information on their ticket is accurate before leaving the betting kiosk, window, or terminal. No ticket can be altered or voided prior to the start time of any given event unless this is authorized at the discretion of the Sports Betting Operation and agreed upon by both parties.
12. The Sports Betting Operation is not responsible for lost, stolen or illegible tickets.
13. Winning tickets are deemed void 180 days after the conclusion of final event to which they relate.
14. Winning tickets may be redeemed by mailing the ticket and a self-addressed envelope with correct return postage to the following address:
Silver Reef Casino Resort
Attn: Sports Wagering Dept
4876 Haxton Way; Ferndale, WA 98248

Silver Reef Casino Resort Sports Wagering House Rules

15. The Sports Betting Operation settles all markets relating to an event in accordance with the official ruling of the relevant governing body at the end of the event.
16. When ambiguity or uncertainty exists around any result the Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to suspend settlement of any market until any doubt can be removed to the reasonable satisfaction of the company. The Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to cancel any market if the uncertainty regarding settlement cannot be resolved.
17. Payouts in excess of $10,000 could be delayed until the next banking day and may be processed by electronic bank transfer or by check.
18. The Sports Betting Operation does everything possible to ensure no errors are made in relation to pricing and bet acceptance. However, system and human errors may happen on occasion. The Sports Betting Operation reserves the right, at its own discretion, to correct or cancel any obvious errors, including but not limited to the following conditions:
 - a. In the case of pricing errors where it is obvious that the price offered is materially different from the consensus market, and it is abundantly clear that the price is incorrect. In these instances, bets will be settled at the correct price at the time of placement which will be established from pricing logs and direct comparison to competitors in the market.
 - b. In the case of an event being offered completely in error. In these instances, the Sports Betting Operation may void any related events in its sole discretion and will provide justification as to how it determined the event should not have been offered.
 - c. When an incorrect handicap is displayed as a result of a technical or manual inputting error. In these instances, the Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to settle any affected bets at corrected odds to reflect those odds that would have been available when the handicap line was set.
 - d. If a bet is accepted in error on an event or outcome for which no prices are available. In these instances, the bet will be void and the stakes returned.
 - e. In the case where the sportsbook and/or betting systems have encountered system or technical issues or there is a settlement error. In these instances, issues will be addressed individually, and the Sports Betting Operation reserves the right to resolve them at its' sole discretion.
19. Any winnings resulting from an error shall be deemed invalid and will be reversed. Any results, clocks, or scores displayed at the book or on the site are for guidance purposes only. While the Sports Betting Operation makes every effort to ensure that this information is accurate, it does not accept liability should the information be shown incorrectly.
20. In the event that a customer has a dispute involving a placed wager, or the way in which a bet or market type has been settled, the customer should consult with sportsbook personnel or contact Silver Reef Casino Resort customer service at 360-383-0777 or at guestservice@silverreefcasino.com.

Prohibited Persons

1. Persons under the age of 18
2. Persons placing a wager on behalf of anyone else
3. Any person who is an athlete, coach, referee or player in or on any sports event overseen by that person's sports governing body;

Silver Reef Casino Resort Sports Wagering House Rules

4. Any person who holds a position of authority or influence sufficient to exert influence over the participants in a sporting contest, including coaches, managers, handlers, or athletic trainers;
5. Any person with access to certain types of exclusive information on any sports event overseen by that person's sports governing body; or,
6. Any person identified by any lists provided by the person's sports governing body to the Washington State Gaming Commission.

Cancellations, Postponements

Some markets have sports specific rules regarding cancellations and postponements, but in the absence of these rules, the following applies:

1. If the event is not completed within 24 hours after the originally scheduled completion date, all bets on markets for the event will be cancelled, except for bets on any markets that have been unconditionally determined; and,
2. If the scheduled duration or event conditions change after a wager is placed but prior to the start of the event, all bets will be cancelled.

Change of venue

Some markets have sports specific rules regarding changes of venue, but in the absence of these rules, the following applies in the case of a change of venue:

1. In relation to all team sports, if the scheduled venue is changed after a wager is placed all bets will be cancelled only if the new venue is a home ground of the original away team (all bets will be cancelled for international matches if there is a change in country of the venue);
2. In all events other than team sports if the scheduled venue is changed all bets will stand; and,
3. If there is a change in the type of surface (for example a football game changes from grass to a synthetic surface) all bets will stand.

Wagering Ties

A wagering tie, also called a push, will be handled as follows:

1. Straight bets – original bet is refunded
2. Parlays and teasers – number of legs is reduced by the number of ties

In-Play Wagers

1. If a market is not scheduled or intended to be turned in-play after the listed start time, but the Sports Betting Operation fails to suspend the market, all bets after the originally scheduled start time will be cancelled.
2. If the Sports Betting Operation accepts a wager on a market where the outcome has already been determined that bet shall be deemed cancelled.

Dead Heats

1. Unless stated otherwise, a Dead Heat Rule applies to bets on a market where two or more selections are joint winners.
2. If a dead heat between two selections is declared on any event, half the bet is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost.

Silver Reef Casino Resort Sports Wagering House Rules

3. If more than two dead heats are declared, the bet is proportioned accordingly.

Parlay Betting

1. A parlay is a single sports wager that involves two or more individual wager outcomes also known as legs.
2. Parlay odds are set at the point the bet is placed.
3. In order to win a parlay bet, all legs of the parlay must be won.
4. If any constituent selection in multiple/parlay leg is a no action/non-runner all bets on that leg will be void. Parlays combining different selections within the same event are not accepted when there are related contingencies. If a bet containing outcomes with related contingencies is taken in error, the Sports Betting Operation may settle the individual bet combinations which contain two or more of the related contingency selections as constituent bets, as singles/straight bets.
5. If any leg is a push, a non-runner, or cancelled for any reason, all bets on that leg will be void and the parlay bet shall be adjusted accordingly. For example, if three legs are bet and one leg is cancelled, that bet will become a double. If two legs are bet and one leg is cancelled, the single bet will stand.

Teasers

A teaser permits the bettor to add points on an underdog's point spread or subtract points from a favorite. This also applies to totals where the bettor can subtract points from the Over selection and add them to the Under. A minimum of two teams must be selected for a valid teaser and all selections must cover the spread for the teaser to win. In the case of a push on any pick in a teaser it reduces the number of bets to the next level down. For example, a 3-team teaser with one push/tie reduces to a two-team teaser and the payout is recalculated based on the reduced number of picks. A push in a two-team teaser without a loss will make the entire bet a push and the bet will be refunded.

Futures

For all futures wagers, in the circumstance of a team or player name change all bets are still deemed to be action. In the occurrence of a team relocation, all existing futures bets are still deemed action. In the case of an even changing its name, all existing futures bets on said event are deemed to be action.
