

FORTUNE PAI GOW

The object of Fortune Pai Gow Poker is for the player, using all seven cards dealt, to create a qualifying five card poker hand and a subsequent two card hand. In order to win, both hands must beat the Banker's hands. (The Banker may be the house or player.)

Fortune Pai Gow Poker is played with a standard 52-card deck plus one Joker. The Joker can only be used as an Ace or as the fifth card in a straight, flush, straight flush or royal flush.

HOW TO PLAY FORTUNE PAI GOW

To begin each round, make a standard Pai Gow wager. You may also make the Fortune Bonus and Progressive wagers. The dealer then deals seven cards to the dealer, and to all six player's spots—whether or not they are played. Pai Gow dice are rolled by the Banker (house or player) to determine which playing spot receives the first cards. The dealer always qualifies.

After the cards are dealt, you must split them into two hands, a five-card hand and a two-card hand. The five-card hand must always rank higher than the two-card hand.

RANKING OF HANDS

Each five-card hand is ranked according to the standard poker hand hierarchy. Hands are ranked according to poker with the exception that for the Fortune Bonus Pay Table the Three-of-a-Kind pays higher than a Straight. The highest two card hand is a pair of Aces and the highest five card hand is a Royal Flush. When comparing five-card hands, a Straight beats Three-of-a-Kind like traditional poker. The Joker is used only as an Ace, or to complete a Straight, a Flush, or a Straight Flush. Remember that because of the Joker, you have the potential to have five Aces, which beats a royal flush.

FOULED HANDS

Examples of fouled hands are setting three cards in your two card hand and four in your five card hand, or setting the two card hand as a higher ranking hand than your five card hand.

You must win both hands outright to receive a payout. The house wins if both of the dealer's hands are winners or if one hand wins and the other hand is a draw. Any other combination results in a push. All winning wagers are paid out at even money (1 to 1) less a 5% commission. Commission is waived if you wager $5 or more on the Fortune Bonus Bet.

The Fortune Bonus bet wins if your hand matches one of the payouts from the offered pay-table.
