

SPANISH 21

The layout for Spanish 21 is very similar to a standard Blackjack layout. The only differences there are: the felt identifies the game as Spanish 21, the Bonus 21 Payoffs are printed on the layout and the "Match the Dealer" bet is offered. Rule signs are on the table designated for Spanish 21.

We offer this game with four decks. The only exception to the standard deck is that all number "10" cards are removed. (A Spanish deck consists of Ace to 9, Jack, Queen, and King.)

Players can double down on two or more cards, including after splitting. Players can split cards of equal value, including Aces, up to three times, creating four hands. When splitting, Aces are treated like any other card. Hitting and doubling down of split hands, including Aces, are allowed. 21's get paid automatically.

A player Blackjack always beats a dealer's Blackjack, and is paid 3 to 2.

A player total of 21 always beats a dealer's total of 21. Certain player 21 totals result in a Bonus 21 Payoff as noted on the payout schedule on the table.

The dealer checks under the Ace or face card for Blackjack. Early surrender (before peek) is not permitted. Otherwise, surrender on first two cards is permitted. Surrender allows the player to forfeit half of his wager and drop from the hand. The player cannot surrender when the dealer's hand is a blackjack or if he has taken a hit. The game is played with the dealer hitting "soft 17."

The Super Bonus Payoff requires no special side bet. When a player's first three cards are suited 7s and the dealer's up card is any 7, that player wins a $1,000 Super Bonus when a $5 minimum bet is being played, or a $5,000 Super Bonus when a $25 bet is being played. All other betting players of that round receive a $50 Envy Bonus.

Bonuses are not paid on double down hands. Players holding certain hands totaling 21 who have not doubled down are paid a bonus 21 Payoff. (see below)

Players can also make a Match the Dealer bet. In addition to the regular Spanish 21 bet, a player can bet that either of the first two cards will match the dealer's up card in rank. The payoffs are indicated on the table sign. Match the Dealer bet: $1 to $25.
